

User Card

User Card entitles the holder to use the library collections and services in all library premises. User Card is issued after filing the application form and it is valid for one year.

Users may use following types of User card:

- University of Economics card (ISIC, ITIC, staff card)
- User Card issued by the Slovak Economic Library
- Library chip card issued by other libraries (in the case of users outside the UEBA).

Temporary User Card is valid for 3 months from the date of issue and their holders are entitled to use library services and collections on reference basis only (inside library study).
